

ACRP Zoom Conference on Friday 4 March 2022 08:30 – 15:30

THEME: Ministry in Africa: Challenges in Perspective

As you may be aware, the ACRP Conference for 2022 will take place online. This will make the conference more accessible to our affiliates all over South Africa and also those affiliates in other countries.

We want to extend our thanks to the presenters who have made themselves available for this day. The topics of their presentations will be communicated when the final conference programme is distributed, but we can assure you that this will be a conference well worth attending.

Cost of the conference:

R220 for registered ACRP affiliates (this includes affiliates of all 3 Councils within ACRP)

R440 for non-affiliates

Number of ACRP CPD points awarded:

8 ACRP CPD points for full and successful attendance of the conference.

Registration form (please see attached):

The registration form is compulsory and should accompany the proof of payment for the ACRP Conference.

NB Last date for registration Friday 25 February 2022.

The link for the conference will be sent out 2 days before the conference to those who have registered and have sent us their registration forms and proof of payments.

Banking details:

Bank: ABSA

Please ensure that you provide the correct reference when making the payment, otherwise we will be unable to process your registration.

A recording of the ACRP Conference will be made and distributed to the paying attendees. Those who are unable to join the conference on the day, will be able to watch the recording afterwards, however, in order to receive your ACRP CPD attendance certificate, you will have to submit a completed questionnaire as proof that the recording has been watched.

Since the ACRP Conference will take place via Zoom, it is advisable that each attendee should open a free Zoom account beforehand in order to simplify the process of connecting on the day of the Conference.

We hope you are as excited about the upcoming online ACRP Conference as we are!
